1802/06 Beating the Bounds

It is a Parish Council tradition to organise an annual walk of part of the Parish Boundary. It normally takes place on Rogation Sunday, 6 May 2018, (exactly five weeks after Easter Sunday). This ancient tradition dates back to medieval times and was partly designed to 'reinforce' the parish boundaries to children from generation to generation. We have held annual walks in Denham since 1992,

The walk this year is a relaxed 2½ mile stroll in the south of the parish along the bank of the Alderbourne and the fields of New Denham.

Traditionally in recent years Paul Graham, previous Parish Clerk, has led the walks and he is willing to do so again this year but unfortunately is not available on the 6th.

The committee is asked to agree

- Whether to continue with the even being held on Rogation Sunday or moved to a date convenient with Paul Graham's diary
- If needed, another walk leader
- Agree route, previous route affected by mineral extraction.

1711/05 Jazz on the Village Green
